We've laid out a few of our recommendations below. Entry Keypad The entry keypad will allow you to enter the garage without a transmitter. Pop down to your local coffee shop without the need for your keys! Great for children, as there is no need to give them a key or transmitter which they can easily misplace. All you need is a PIN and you're in! Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Rolling Door Combo Access Device The Rolling Door Combo Access Drive is recommended for roller doors where the door is the only entry point to the garage. The Rolling Door Combo Access Drive will enable you to manually open your roller door during a power failure or if you misplace your garage door remote. Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Sectional Door Emergency Key Release The Emergency Key Release is recommended for sectional doors where the door is the only entry point to the garage. The Emergency Key Release will enable you to manually open your sectional door during a power failure or if you misplace your garage door remote. Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Find a supplier near me Smart Phone Control Perhaps the most exciting innovation in garage door remote access is smartphone control. If you – like most people these days – have your phone with you at all times, make the most of its abilities and opt for our Smart Phone Control Kit . Use the kit to operate your garage door from anywhere If for instance a delivery arrives and you're on the other side of town, you can open the garage door to let the driver in, then lock it shut behind them. The B&D; App doesn't just open and close the garage door remotely; it sends notifications (that you can personalise to suit) to let you know who has used the garage door, tell you if the door has been left open for long periods or if there is an obstruction and more. Plus, with a Smartphone Control Kit , you can even talk to your garage door! Use voice-activated control via Siri and Google Assistant to operate the door hands-free. Safe as can B&D; Browse our smart door solutions Browse our smart door solutions Grant access with the click of a button B&D;'s fully-integrated secure access solution puts you in control of managing and monitoring access to your home, whether you're there or not! Use your smartphone to help keep you, and what you value most, safe. Do you ever get parcels delivered to your home? Have you ever had to let a family member in while you were on holiday? Do you really know what time the kids got home last night? Never worry about racing home to provide access again!
