Timber-looks equally compliment more modern homes with featuring black or dark exterior cladding. Add value to your home with the addition of a stunning, premium wood-look garage door . Elevate your home's features Create a dramatic first impression by coordinating with other architectural exterior features. As the garage door can take up to 60% of a home's façade, it's important to ensure all design elements are cohesive. Simply matching a wooden front door to a garage door can immediately elevate the look and feel of a house.
